The American Association of Osteopathic Examiners (AAOE) had a well attended meeting in San Francisco during the AOA's Osteopathic Medical Education Conference and Exposition (OMED). We met on the 25th of October and had the leadership from the AOA attend. This included AOA President, Karen Nichols DO; President-Elect Martin Levine DO, MPH; and Executive Director, John Crosby, JD. Leadership from the National Osteopathic Board of Medical Examiners (NBOME) was also in attendance including, Chair, John Thornburg DO, PhD, and Larry Turner, VP for Administration and COO. Additionally we had international guests from Australia and New Zealand. The minutes from the meeting are posted on the AAOE website for your review.

Annual Educational Summit

Our Annual Educational Summit will be held in Las Vegas, NV at the Paris Hotel on the 15th and 16th of January 2011. The Call to Meeting Invitation is posted for your reference. The agenda is set and this will be an informative meeting. We have applied for AOA Category 1B CME for this meeting. The room location will follow.

Nominating and By-Laws Committee

Gary Jackson, DO, Chair of the AAOE Nominating and By-Laws Committee along with Vice Chair, Tom Pickard, DO, have reviewed the By-Laws and have posted a revised draft. This updated draft of the By-Laws will be voted on at the January 15, 2011 meeting. The Nominating Committee has also put out a Call for Nominations for officers of the AAOE. This Call for Nominations is posted for your review. The AAOE will have elections at our April 29, 2011 meeting in Seattle at the Federation of State Medical Boards Annual Meeting. If you are interested in running for office, please review the posted item on nominations and contact the nominating committee prior to the deadline.
